Davis and Mary Boyd Woodward had 13 children, 81 grandchildren and a total of at least 1047 direct descendants in February 1958.
Birmingham Meeting House, Chester Co. Pa. where our early ancestors worshipped. Built in 1763 and still in use. Used as a hospital during the Battle of the Brandywine Sept. 11, 1777 and many colonial soldiers are buried in unmarked graves in the old cemetery. General Lafayette was wounded during the battle. Photograph taken in 1870 by Gilbert Cope.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

The author is deeply grateful to all those who have so generously and painstakingly assembled and submitted their family records. The response to his letters has been most encouraging. This has been an enjoyable undertaking because of the wholehearted cooperation extended and because it has enabled him to become newly acquainted, by correspondence at least, with many hundreds of fine relatives.

Thompson Elwyn Woodward
The purpose of this study is to trace the lineage of that branch of the Woodward family in which Davis Woodward 1806-1882 is the key figure. Biographic material is omitted except for Davis himself, his father Caleb and a short discussion of the Boyd ancestry for the reason that the ancestors of Caleb are covered in an excellent publication by Lewis Woodward, M.D. of Westminster, Md. 1879 which is available for all to see in the Library of Congress, the Library of the Daughters of the American Revolution, Washington, D. C. and the Library of the Chester Co. Pa. Historical Society at West Chester, Pa.; also, because the lives of the descendants of Davis Woodward can be more fully and authoritatively discussed by members of the twelve branches of the Davis Woodward descendants. It is hoped that some one in each of these branches will be interested enough to portray the lives of his ancestors back to Davis Woodward before the passage of time increases the difficulty of doing so.

Furthermore, it did not appear desirable to discuss the lineage of the Taylor family into which a Woodward married since such a discussion can be found in the Library of the Chester Co. Pa. Historical Society nor did it seem ethical or necessary to draw heavily on the Boyd family papers being assembled, it is hoped, for publication by Carrol C. Boyd, Dunbar, Pa.

No attempt is made to glorify the Woodward name. It is, however, an honorable name and one of which we who bear it can be justly proud. So far as the author has been able to learn the Woodwards, in general, have been law-abiding, thrifty and respected citizens and have contributed their full share to the progress of the nation.

In reference to the year of birth it should be stated that many of the dates in the discussion of collateral descendants were estimated from the census reports in this way: say for instance, that the 1860 census listed a person as 48 years of age then the year of his birth is given in this report as 1812 (1860 minus 48). Now if that person happened to be born in the latter part of the year after the census was taken he would be 49 years old in 1860 and would be born in 1811 instead of 1812. Therefore, some of the years of birth calculated from the census reports will be in error by one year.
EARLY HISTORY

The name Woodward means "guardian of the woods", though it appears that the guardian's duties had more to do with the protection of the wild life in the woods than with the woods itself.

Much more than can be reported here has been written about the origin of the name Woodward. In a communication of Apr. 14, 1936 to the author's brother Isaac S. Woodward from Mrs. Mary Derby Van der Veer, Brattleboro, Vermont the origin of the name is described in detail. Only a much condensed version of this communication is given here.

A family named "Vidarvarde" of Norway in the year 912 equipped ten ships for the use of Rollo, first Duke of Normandy. For this service the family was granted a tract of land in Normandy and the name Vidarvarde was given the French translation, Du Boisgarde.

A Richard Du Boisgarde went to England with William the Conqueror and for valorous service in the battle of Hastings 1066 was awarded certain properties in the County of Lancaster, England. In the deed of conveyance of these properties the name was anglicized to Woodward, such being a literal translation.

A Richard Woodward 349 years later at the battle of Agincourt in 1415 where the English routed the French, so notably distinguished himself for great tactical skill and valor as to call forth the King's heartfelt thanks in a speech before the army at Windsor. His Majesty presented Richard Woodward with a shield of gold bearing the family arms with a new motto, namely: "Suave et Brave" (Gentle and Brave). The crest on the shield was changed to a coronet surmounted by a greyhound; the coronet signifies lesser rank than sovereignty and the greyhound a sign of alertness, vigilance and fidelity. The armor depicts a full-faced helmet with the vizor raised signifying a knight or baronet. This is the same as the coat of arms possessed by the author except that the motto is "Virtus semper Viret" (Valor always Flourishes). It should be stated that other families of Woodwards have different crests and mottoes.

The first Woodwards to whom we can trace our ancestry with certainty settled in Chester County, Pa. in the seventeenth century, the first mention of the name being in 1687.
Whether they came from Massachusetts as has been claimed or directly from England must perhaps remain unknown though the evidence points to the latter for a search of the early history of Massachusetts and of Chester County, Pa. has failed to show the movement of any Woodwards from Massachusetts to Chester County.

It is presumed that they came to Chester Co. Pa. in order to worship as they chose as it is a matter of record that certain Woodwards in England were persecuted for defiantly maintaining their right to religious freedom. While there is no documentary evidence that the first settlers were members of the Society of Friends (Quakers) it is known that their children were members and occupied posts of responsibility in the administration of church affairs. If not actual members themselves it can be safely assumed that the first settlers were affiliated with the Society of Friends.

Their descendants intermarried with others of the same faith and the branch represented by our ancestors continued to be Quakers for about four generations. Even after their migration to Fayette County, Pa. they continued to attend a Quaker meeting house at Sandy Hill in Menallen Township. When the membership at this meeting house declined most of the Woodwards became Presbyterians.

HOW THE LINEAGE WAS TRACED

The report on the Woodward family written by Davis W. Henderson in 1939 provided the starting point in the search. It is stated in this account on good authority that the parents of our ancestor, Caleb Woodward 1779, were Richard Woodward 1737 and Hannah Taylor 1742. The problem was to establish the link between this Richard Woodward and the other Woodwards of Chester County, Pa.

Some reports on the subject have stated that our lineage traces to a Richard Woodward who died in Chester County in 1752. An examination of his will and the births, marriages and deaths of his children convinced the author that the Richard who died in 1752 could have been neither the father nor the grandfather of Richard 1737.

The data upon which this conclusion was based are as follows: The Richard Woodward who died in 1752 had only three sons - Richard, John and William. His son Richard died in 1760 leaving three minor children - Joseph, Rachel and Deborah. His son John was not married until 1750, and while he had a son Richard this Richard was not born until 1754. His son William had no son Richard, at least not one born in 1737, because the record shows that a son James was born Nov. 28, 1736 and the next recorded birth was Abraham on April 17, 1740. The Richard Woodward being sought was born Oct. 8, 1737.

Further search of the Chester County records revealed a will of another Richard Woodward who died in Chester County in 1748. This provided the first real break in the case as one of the legatees of the will was a grandson Richard, son of John Woodward. The beneficiaries of the will were the following children: Henry, John, Richard, Thomas, Deborah (Bennett), Mary (Strode) and Alice (Ash); and the following grandchildren: Henry son of Henry, Richard son of John, Richard son of Mary Strode and Mary daughter of Deborah Bennett. An examination of the Taylor family chart on file in the Library of the Chester County Historical Society at West Chester, Pa. showed that Hannah Taylor, a daughter of Richard and Eleanor Taylor, married Richard Woodward about 1761.

The next question was “Who was the father of our ancestor, Richard Woodward 1673-1748?” The year that Woodwards were first mentioned in Chester County records was in 1687. There was a Richard Woodward and a Robert Woodward, evidently brothers. Richard settled in what was known as Thornbury, and certain land transactions occurred between him and a son Richard. The son Richard acquired extensive land holdings in West Bradford Township and became an active member of the Bradford Meeting at Marshallton, Pa. The elder Richard was also a resident of West Bradford Township at the time of his death in 1706.

Robert was mentioned at times as a resident of Lower Providence Township, Chester Township and Manor of Rocklands which was in New Castle County, Pa. (New Castle is now the northern most county of Delaware). He was a juror twice in 1688. On one occasion he was required to post bond for peaceful behavior after using abusive language towards the magistrates. No further record of Robert’s whereabouts was found.

Robert, like his brother Richard, also had a son Richard who at one time lived in Thornbury. It is recorded that in 1703 John Willis of Birmingham conveyed 150 acres of land to Richard Woodward, late of Thornbury, yeoman, son of Robert Woodward of the County of New Castle, tailor, for 60 pounds. This land was later in East Bradford Township and it was in this township that Richard 1673-1748 was living at the time his will was recorded at West Chester, Pa. These facts seem to establish without doubt that our ancestry traces to Robert Woodward rather than to his brother Richard.

It is recorded that Richard 1673 was married among Friends and continued his active membership in the Birmingham Meeting throughout his life. His son, John, also was a member and helped administer affairs of this meeting.

Parents and Grandparents of Davis Woodward

In the book "Genealogy of the Woodward Family" published in 1879 and authored by Lewis Woodward, our ancestors are discussed only down to the time they left Chester Co. Pa. This discussion begins where the other left off.

Richard Woodward 1737 and wife Hannah Taylor 1742 were married about 1761 among Friends. They had eight children - Ann 1762, Elizabeth 1764, Joseph 1766, Amos 1772-1772, John 1776, Caleb 1779, Joshua 1784 and last Hannah 1789-1802.

The four brothers crossed the mountains from Chester County, Pa. and settled in Fayette Co. Pa. soon after the year 1800. The time is established by the U. S. Censuses. In 1800 no Woodwards were found in Fayette County; in 1810 John was in Union Township where he continued to live, Joseph, Caleb, and Joshua in Menallen Township where they continued to live. Also found in the 1810 census was a Richard Woodward and wife both over 45 years of age. No Richard in that age group was found in later censuses. This leads to the belief that Richard and wife Hannah Taylor came with their four sons to Fayette County and died there, although no tombstones confirming this belief were found in the cemetery of the Society of Friends at Sandy Hill in Menallen Township nor, in fact, were their tombstones found in the Quaker cemeteries of Chester County. It should be stated, however, that the inscriptions on many of the old tombstones in all cemeteries were illegible.

Our ancestor Caleb Woodward 1779 married Phebe McCarty 1780 and of this union six children were born as has been stated. An extensive search has failed to reveal the names of Phebe’s parents. The 1790 census for Menallen Township shows a Samuel, a Nathan and an Adam McCarty each of whom had a daughter or daughters in Phebe’s age group. Also near Caleb’s home in Chester County there was a Miles McCarty who had a daughter born before 1790. Unfortunately the names and ages of individual members of the families were not given in U. S. censuses until the year 1850.
No McCartys were found in the censuses of Menallen Township nor in the adjoining townships of Union, German and Redstone for the year 1800.

Like his three brothers and two brothers-in-law Caleb was a farmer as were nearly all the substantial citizens of that day. Caleb’s farm was not large, only about 120 acres, but large enough in those days of hand and horse labor and somewhat primitive implements. It was a good farm and it still is. This farm was conveyed to his son Davis who lived on it a few years before moving to Dunbar Township of Fayette Co. Davis later conveyed it to his son Joseph. Joseph lived on this farm from 1864 until 1883 when he sold it and moved to Missouri. There was an outcropping of a nine-foot vein of coal on this farm from which neighbors helped themselves. Unfortunately the potentialities of coal were not realized at that time.

But Caleb was not only a farmer but also a skilled mechanic, especially proficient in the forging and fashioning of iron and steel materials. Farmers came for many miles to have him fit their wooden mold board plows with steel shares. He also did a good business in the making of chains and the metal parts of wagons, harness and saddles.

There is no evidence that Caleb was ever a member of the Society of Friends. He and his wife Phebe were admitted to membership in the Cumberland Presbyterian Church of Uniontown, Pa. in 1833. They are both interred in the cemetery of the Presbyterian Church, now Salem View Cemetery, at New Salem, Pa. Although Caleb’s brothers remained Quakers, their offspring for the most part became Presbyterians. Caleb and Phebe spent their last years in New Salem with their widowed daughter, Hannah Hague, Caleb died in 1856 and Phebe less than two months later. Their tombstones are still in good condition and it is noted that Caleb’s grave has a metal marker stating that he was a veteran of the War of 1812.

A Biographical Sketch of Davis Woodward

Next in line is Davis Woodward 1806-1882, the key figure in this study. Davis only son of Caleb was born in Menallen Township of Fayette Co. Pa. He grew to manhood there on the farm, married Mary Boyd also of Menallen Township and continued to live for a few years on the home place before moving to Dunbar Township of Fayette Co.
He was possessed of considerable business ability and acquired a competence through skillful but honest and fair dealing. His farm was located on the National Pike, the main thoroughfare between the East and the West. For many years the National Pike did a thriving business—passengers in coaches, freight in wagons and livestock on foot. Davis kept a drovers’ stand where great herds of livestock and their attendants on the way to market stopped over night for rest, feed and food. Davis did not hesitate to extend credit. The drovers after selling their livestock would return by the same route and pay for their accommodations in gold.

The author wishes to thank Mrs. Leo Mings, Roseville, Ill. a great granddaughter of Davis Woodward for a certified copy of Davis’ will. This will was prepared in 1881 when Davis was 75 years old and one year before his death. It bespeaks the clarity of his mind, his thrift and his absolute fairness. Each of his sons and daughters was left a farm or an equivalent of one and if certain sons inherited farms more valuable than that of another, which would be unavoidable, these sons were to pay certain specified sums to the son having the least valuable farm in order to equalize the legacies of all.

When judged by the standards of those days Davis left his wife, Mary Boyd quite well provided for. The part of his will relating thereto is copied verbatim as follows:

“Item 2d It is my will and desire that my beloved wife, Mary, have the use of my brick house I now live in together with the garden & a share of all the fruit grown on the farm sufficient for her use. Also to have the interest of Ten Thousand dollars annually during her natural life, all to be in lieu of dower. I also desire that my beloved wife Mary have my household & kitchen furniture and stuff in the house, together with one horse creature, one cow & them kept on the farm free from expense to my wife, together with my buggie & harness, all to be hers absolute to dispose of as she may think best. I desire Finley, my son keep his mother in fuel of all kinds sufficient to make her comfortable, during her natural life at his own expense.”

His deceased daughters’ children are provided for as follows: “Item 12th It is my will that my deceased daughter Mary’s children have three thousand dollars out of my estate viz Jane Cox one thousand dollars, Davis Cox one thousand dollars the two younger children five hundred dollars each to be paid into the hands of their Guardians within two years after my death. I hereby nominate my son John W. & my son in law Stewart Henderson Jr. (Harriets husband) Guardians for Mary’s children & to put the money at interest until they arrive at the age of twenty one years respectively when it is to be paid to them.” The first impression might be that $3000 was not a fair share for Mary’s children but when we consider, as no doubt Davis did, that $3000 at 6 per cent compound interest becomes $6000 in 12 years and at 8 per cent becomes $6000 in 9 years, we can be assured that by Davis’ calculation they received their full share.

“Item 15th It is my will that good and substantial tombstones be put to the graves of myself and wife after which the residue & remainder of all my property real personal or mixed be equally divided between all my children living or the heirs of those dead share and share alike except my dec’d Mary’s children who have been left all that was intended for them as above stated. Lastly I do hereby nominate and appoint my sons E. Finley and Joseph executors of this my Last Will and Testament. In witness whereof I have set my hand and seal the 17th day of Jan. A.D. 1881.

Davis Woodward Seal

Signed Sealed Published and Declared by the within named Davis Woodward to be his Last Will and Testament, who, in his presence & at his request have signed our names.”

Ebenezer Finley
Albert W. Finley

(Ebenezer Finley was the husband of Davis Woodward’s sister Phebe)

Though not a member of the Society of Friends Davis, nevertheless, lived a life in conformity with the ideals of his Quaker ancestors. As an example he like his forebears, did not believe in war and would not permit any of his sons to serve in the War between the States. When they were drafted he procured substitutes for them, a practice permissible at that time.

Davis and wife were members of the Laurel Hill Presby-tenian Church and are interred in the cemetery of that church.
Davis was born June 11, 1806 and died Apr. 6, 1882. His wife, Mary Boyd was born April 13, 1810 and died Nov. 13, 1890.
The Boyd Lineage

The author is indebted to Mr. and Mrs. Carrol C. Boyd, Dunbar, Pa. for much of the following.

Our forebears, the Boyd family of Scotland, were closely associated with and possibly even blood relatives of the Royal Stewart Clan, direct ancestors of the Stuart line that ruled in Scotland over 250 years and of the unfortunate Royal House of Stuart that reigned over England, Scotland and Ireland for about 90 years.

The first Boyd in America to whom we can trace our ancestry was William Boyd, Esq. 1752 who came with his family from Frederick County, Virginia to Bullskin Township of Fayette Co. Pa. about 1785. He was a man of considerable education and for a number of years served as Justice of the Peace. He settled on a tract of land which according to the original survey by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania comprised some 240 acres. These holdings were greatly increased during William’s life time. He died in 1812 and was interred in a private cemetery on his own farm.

The lineage continues through Robert Boyd 1782, third son of William. Robert was born in Virginia, grew up in Bullskin Township, married and moved to a farm in Menallen Township of Fayette County, Pa. where he continued to live until his death. For a number of years he was an Associate Judge of the Courts of Fayette County. Robert died in 1853 and was interred in the Oak Grove Cemetery of Fayette County.

Among the children of Robert Boyd was Mary 1810 who married Davis Woodward 1806, the key figure in this study. Robert Boyd’s maternal line traces to Jeremiah Jack (Jacque) a Frenchman, who settled in Frederick County, Va. Records in the Court House of that county show that there was a transaction in 1744 between Jeremiah Jack and the County Clerk involving 448 pounds of tobacco. Jeremiah’s son, John Jack, married Ann Shearer. He was killed by Indians in 1757 a few months before their fourth child Ann was born. Ann Jack married William Boyd discussed above.

Mary Boyd’s maternal line traces to Samuel Work 1749-1833, and Mary Dunlap 1753. The second child of Samuel and Mary Work was Rebekah Work 1785 who became the wife of Robert Boyd 1782. The third child of Robert and Rebekah Boyd was Mary Boyd 1810 who became the wife of Davis Woodward 1806.

The Boyd lineage is not discussed in greater detail for the reason stated in the Foreword of this publication.

Some Collateral Descendants in Fayette Co. Pa.

The author acknowledges with gratitude the valuable help of Mr. Benjamin F. King and his wife of New Salem, Pa. in preparing this section. Both have been life-long residents of Fayette County, and Mr. King is now Custodian of the Salem View Cemetery and Secretary of the corporation that administers it. The author is also deeply indebted to Mrs. Ferne Jones, Grand Ridge, Ill., a direct descendant of Caleb Woodward's brother Joseph, for submitting a brochure dated June 1941 on the Joseph Woodward family by Judge Charles E. Woodward. La Grange, Ill. and for other pertinent information.

The records which follow have been compiled mostly from inscriptions on tombstones and from U. S. censuses 1790 to 1880. As these censuses do not list the surnames of the wives it has been possible to trace only a few of the descendants through the female line. Furthermore it was not until 1850 that the name and age of each individual member of the families were given. Census records since 1880 are not available for public examination.

The Jefferis Family

Richard Woodward 1737 and wife Hannah Taylor 1742 had a daughter Ann 1762 who married William Jefferis and a daughter Elizabeth 1764 who married Elias Jefferis. William and Elias are presumed to be brothers and were born about the same time or a few years earlier than their wives. Each was head of a family in East Bradford Township of Chester County, Pa. in 1790.

William and Elias settled in Union Township of Fayette Co. Pa. before the year 1800. Elias moved to Menallen Twp. before the year 1810 and continued to live there. William's whereabouts in 1810 are unknown but in 1820 he was back in Union Twp. with a new family. William had four sons and two daughters born before 1790 and two sons and two daughters born between 1790 and 1800. Elias had six sons and three daughters - one son born before 1790, five sons and two daughters between 1790 and 1810 and one daughter after 1810. As the 1840 census lists both William and Elias and the 1850 census lists neither it is assumed that both died between 1840 and 1850.

The only identifiable son of William that was found was William Jr. born before 1794 who with wife, two sons and two daughters was in Union Twp. in 1820. No further trace of William Jr. could be found.

The only two sons of Elias that could be identified from census records were William and Taylor Jefferis. Incidentally it can be safely assumed that any family in which the given name Taylor appears is descended from Richard Woodward and Hannah Taylor regardless of whether the surname is spelled Jefferis or Jeffries.

William Jefferis 1801-1864, son of Elias, lived in Germain Township, Fayette Co. Pa. He and his wife Sarah 1807-1903 were the parents of a very large family as follows:

| 1  | Mary Ann 1827 | 9  | Joseph 1843 |
| 2  | Elias 1829   | 10 | Harriet 1844 |
| 3  | Elizabeth 1831 | 11 | Ellen 1846 |
| 4  | Christopher 1834 | 12 | John 1847 |
| 5  | Rebecca 1836 | 13 | Martha 1849 |
| 6  | William 1838 | 14 | Isaac Newton 1851 |
| 7  | Taylor 1840 | 15 | Milton 1853 |
| 8  | Sarah 1842 | 16 | George 1856 |

and Robert somewhere in the group. This was a most remarkable achievement for Sarah who had 17 living children and she herself lived to the age of 96.

Of these children Mary Ann 1827 married Joseph Stacy; Elias 1829 married Mary Moore 1834-1863; Elizabeth 1831-1909 unmarried; Christopher 1834-1874 and wife Lucinda 1839 had one son Henry B. 1870; William 1838 and wife Elizabeth 1837 were parents of John 1862, Oliver 1865, Edmund 1866, Sarah 1868, Mary 1869, Emma 1872, William 1876 (Th William 1838 may have been a son of Taylor Jefferis as he had a son William born at about the same time). Continuing with the children of William 1801, Taylor Jefferis 1840, wife Mary 1847 had one son Elmer 1869 born in Ill; Sarah 1842-1929 single; Joseph 1843-1892 married Sue Worley 1840-1910; Martha 1849-1915 married John Humbert; Isaac Newton 1851-1924 single.

The second identifiable son of Elias Jefferis Sr. was Taylor 1805-1888. Taylor and wife Jane 1808-1888 of Menallen Twp. also had a large family. Mary 1834-1863, Christopher 1836, William 1839, John R. 1840, Buchanan 1842, Taylor Jr. 1843, Elizabeth 1845, Martha Jane 1846, Sarah Ellen 1848, and Woodward who died in 1845, and Florence, Walter and Frank who died at an early age.

Of these children Christopher 1836 and wife Charity 1839 had at least five children - John W. 1862, Jane 1866, Mary E. 1870, Taylor 1872, Catharine B. 1878 and perhaps more later.

The next son, William 1839-1910 and wife Mary Rachel 1845 were the parents of at least eleven children. (This William may have been the son of William 1801, see above). The children were Priscilla 1863, Sarah J. 1864, Thomas 1866-1907, Elizabeth 1868, Harriet 1869, Ann 1871, Eliza 1872, Emma 1875, Ellen G. 1877, John B. 1878 and Mary B. 1880.

John R. 1840 and wife Rachel 1839 had one daughter, Martha J. 1869.

Buchanan 1842-1912 and wife Virginia 1844 had no children.

Taylor Jr. 1843-1926 and wife Martha 1850-1904 had two children - Taylor 1878 and Elmer 1881-1914 and perhaps others born later.

Among those bearing the name of Jefferis, and no doubt sons of either William or Elias, was Nathan or Nathaniel Jefferis 1791-1854 of Union Twp. His wife was Mary Cloud 1800 and their children were Susanna 1822, Elias 1826, Harvey 1832, Sarah 1835 and Anne 1837.

Another was Mifflin Jefferis born between 1800 and 1804 in Union and Menallen Townships who was the father of at least two sons and six daughters. Still another was Caleb Jefferis born before 1790 who was the father of at least 2 sons and six daughters.

Harvey 1832, son of Nathan or Nathaniel Jefferis above, and wife Nancy M. 1834 were the parents of the following children: Mary E. 1858, Evans M. 1859, Susanne 1860, Elias 1863, Hannah M. 1865, Selina 1867, Blanche 1869, John W. 1871, Mabel 1873, Nancy E. 1878.

It is realized that the above list covers relatively few of the descendants of Richard and Hannah Taylor Woodward through their daughters Ann and Elizabeth but the effort required to trace others and the space needed to report them did not appear justified in this publication.
The Woodward Family

Other collateral descendants are those of Joseph, John a. Joshua Woodward who came to Fayette County along with their brother Caleb 1779 who was our ancestor. All were farmers:

Joseph Woodward 1766-1856 married Hope Shotwell 1783-1856. Children:

III Christopher 1843-1887, son of Joseph 1810, wife Sally Ann Langley 1849-1885
1 Nellie 3 Walter Lewis
2 Charles Edgar 1877-1942

There has been no end of speculation regarding the ancestors of one William C. Woodward (called Caleb in III.) Mr. King of New Salem, Pa. mentioned earlier, is convinced that the father of William C. was Joseph who married his aunt, Rebecca McCray Lynn 1826-1858. Joseph died before 1850 and his wife and son went to the home of Joseph Woodward 1766 where the 1950 census lists Rebecca age 23 and Caleb W. age 3. Without doubt there was a close kinship between Joseph 1766 and Joseph the father of William C. This Joseph could not have been the son of Joseph 1766 for he had another son Joseph 1810 and Joseph 1810 had no son Joseph. Nor could he have been the son of Taylor Woodward who was another son of Joseph 1766.

All of which leads to the belief that the full marital history of Joseph 1766 has not been published. Joseph came to Fayette County soon after the year 1800 and is said to have married Hope Shotwell in Fayette Co. In Joseph’s household in 1810 there was a male who was born between the years 1794 and 1800 and another born between 1804 and 1810. Hope could have been the mother of the latter but not of the former. Neither of these two has been accounted for in the published records of the descendants of Joseph 1766.

In the census of 1830 for Menallen Township there was a Richard Woodward born between 1790 and 1800 who had one son and one daughter both born between 1825 and 1830. It is surmised, and with good reason, that this Richard was a son of Joseph 1766 by a previous marriage and that he was the father of the Joseph Woodward who married Rebecca McCray Lynn. Supporting this view is the fact that Joseph 1766 was over 34 years of age when he married Hope Shotwell which is rather old for a first marriage.

William C. (Caleb) Woodward married Martha Jane Lacke 1846. Their first two children were born in Fayette County, the others at Grand Ridge, Ill. The children were:

1. Anna A 1869
2. Charles Lynn 1870
3. William A. 1872
4. Ira L. 1874
5. Etta M. 1876
6. Arthur E. 1878
7. Raymond 1879
8. Clayton
9. Wayne
10. Kent
11. Chester
12. Samuel

Grandsons of John Woodward 1776 and Their Families

John K. Woodward 1832 or 1836 son of Joseph 1804. He and his wife Hannah had the following children and perhaps others. All the children were born at Grand Ridge, Ill.

1. Ruth F. 1869
2. Clark L. 1870
3. Jessie V. 1872
4. Katie Lou 1874
5. James A. 1876
6. Ella J. 1879

Jacob G. 1838 or 1839, son of Joseph 1804, wife Nancy J. Grand Ridge, Ill.

1. Martin 1866
2. Ruth F. 1868
3. Herman 1870
4. Amanda 1872
5. Elizabeth J. 1875
6. John 1876
7. Cora May 1879

Perhaps others.
III Nathan 1835, son of Caleb 1805, wife Mary 1834
   1 George M. 1863  3 Mary E. 1867
   2 John C. 1865  4 Thomas B. 1868

IV William C. 1843-1909, son of Caleb 1805, wife Mary 1849
   1919
   1 John 1866

V Davis 1842, son of John 1817, wife Lydia 1853
   1 Laura 1873  3 James W. 1879
   2 Alvardi 1876

VI Joseph 1847, son of John 1817, wife Mary 1847
   1 John 1871  3 Mary 1875
   2 George 1873

A brief mention of the town of New Salem appears appropriate here as it was the trading center for the early Woodwards. At one time New Salem was notoriously lawless, so much so that it was derisively known as Mutton-town for the reason that many a stolen sheep was said to have found its way to the tables there. Much of the credit for cleaning up the town must be given to our collateral descendants - Finleys and Woodwards. Beautifully located on high ground in an agricultural community, New Salem became and still is a peaceful, well-kept town with a most respectable and high-class citizenry.

Descendants Through Daughters of Caleb Woodward 1779

I Hannah 1804 married Albert ? Hague, no record of family

II Phebe 1807 married Ebenezer Finley, Jr. 1804. The children born of this union were three sons born between the years 1825 and 1830 and
   1 Robert Finley 1830  5 Jane Finley 1840
   2 Evans Finley 1832  6 Albert Finley 1844
   3 Eliza Finley 1834  7 John H. Finley 1847
   4 James G. Finley 1836  8 Violet Finley 1849
Eliza 1809 married Aaron Hibbs 1805. Their children were:
1 Mary Hibbs 1835 4 Asa Hibbs 1845
2 Anne C. Hibbs 1839 5 Ellen E. Hibbs 1850
3 Albert G. Hibbs 1842 6 Melissa J. Hibbs 1853

Lydia 1812 married Zadock Jackson 1805, then Tracy. The children all by the first marriage were:
1 Robert Jackson 1831 3 Phebe C. Jackson 1840
2 James F. Jackson 1837

The four daughters of Caleb Woodward 1779 - Hannah Jague, Phebe Finley, Eliza Hibbs and Lydia Jackson Tracy, also Ebenezer Finley, Jr. were all living in 1880. The descendants of these daughters could not be easily traced as it appeared that nearly all of them had moved westward from Fayette County. However, two of Ebenezer Finley’s sons and their families were found at Grand Ridge, Ill. in the census of 1880.

Ivans Finley 1832 and wife 1835 were the parents of the following children:
1 Violet 1858 5 Frank 1870
2 Eben L. 1863 6 Nora 1873
3 Isaac G. 1865 7 Edna 1879
4 Phoebe A. 1868
All the children were born in Ill.

James G. Finley 1836 second wife Elizabeth 1847
1 John H. 1863 4 Anna 1870
2 Robert J. 1865 5 Quindora 1879
3 Bertha 1868
All the children were born in Ill. and all by first wife except Quindora.

A biographical sketch and photograph of Robert Jackson, son of Lydia 1812 above appears in Ellis’ History of Fayette Co. p. 668.

Ebenezer Finley, Jr. 1804 was quite prominent in church affairs and in the general betterment of the community as were also his father and grandfather, the Rev. James Finley a pioneer Presbyterian minister. The father and grandfather acquired much land in Menallen and Redstone Townships and would be rated quite well-to-do. An account of the Finley family can be seen in Ellis’ History of Fayette County.

Ebenezer Jr.’s son, James G. was the father of John Huston Finley 1863, noted educator, born in Ill. President of Knox College, Galesburg, Ill. President of the College of the City of New York and biographer of Grover Cleveland.

Ebenezer Jr. was evidently held in high esteem by Davis Woodward as it is noted that Davis named one of his sons, Ebenezer Finley.

Descendants of Davis and Mary Boyd Woodward

Davis Woodward and his wife Mary Boyd were the parents of thirteen children, twelve of whom reached maturity, married and brought up families. All of the sons were farmers and all of the daughters married farmers. The grandchildren of Davis numbered 81, 44 grandsons and 37 granddaughters. Evidence of the esteem in which Davis was held by his sons and daughters is shown by the fact that ten of his grandchildren were given the name Davis.

The sons and daughters of Davis and Mary Boyd Woodward were as follows:

Robert Boyd Woodward 1829
Caleb Woodward 1831
Samuel Work Woodward 1833
Davis Woodward 1835-1836
Joseph Woodward 1836
Rebekah Woodward Beatty 1838
Ebenezer Finley Woodward 1840
John William Woodward 1842
Phebe Woodward Collins 1844
Mary Elvira Woodward Cox 1846
Eliza Jane Woodward Henderson 1848
D. Dempsey Woodward 1849
Harriet Woodward Henderson 1851

The descendants of each of these twelve who lived to maturity are taken up separately by families.
